

Dear WesternU Students,

The Financial Aid Office is required to annually send out to our students as consumer disclosure information its Code of Conduct policy. The Financial Aid Office is committed to the highest level of professionalism, and exemplify the highest level of behavior in helping our students find the best ways to pay for college. Below please find our Code of Conduct policy statement.

There is NO action required by you, this is strictly informational.

Thank you,
Financial Aid

Policy Statement:

-
It is the policy of Western University of Health Sciences Financial Aid Office to avoid conflicts of interest between the University, lenders and guarantee agencies, and other affiliations related to financial aid or student loans.

Purpose of Policy:

To establish an ethical framework for professional behavior and responsibilities.

Code of Conduct Policy and Statement of Ethical Principles Information:

The Western University financial aid professional is expected to always maintain ethical behavior and exemplary standards of professional conduct in all aspects of carrying out his or her responsibilities.

► Code of Conduct

1. No action will be taken by the financial aid staff that is for their personal benefit or could be perceived to be a conflict of interest.
 - a. Employees within the financial aid office will not award aid to themselves or their immediate family members. Staff will reserve this task to an institutionally designated person, to avoid the appearance of a conflict of interest.
 - b. If a preferred lender list is provided, it will be compiled without prejudice and for the sole benefit of the students attending the institution. The information included about lenders and loan terms will be transparent, complete, and accurate. The complete process through which preferred lenders are selected will be fully and publically disclosed. Borrowers will not be auto-assigned to any particular lender.
 - c. A borrower's choice of a lender will not be denied, impeded, or unnecessarily delayed by the institution, even if that lender is not included on the institution's preferred lender list.
 - d. No amount of cash, gift, or benefit in excess of a de minimis amount shall be accepted by a financial aid staff member from any financial aid applicant (or his/her family), or from any

- entity doing business with or seeking to do business with the institution (including service on advisory committees or boards beyond reimbursement for reasonable expenses directly associated with such service).
2. Information provided by the financial aid office is accurate, unbiased, and does not reflect preference arising from actual or potential personal gain.
 3. Western University's award notifications and /or other institutionally provided materials shall include the following:
 - a. A breakdown of individual components of the institution's Cost of Attendance, designating all potential billable charges.
 - b. Clear identification of each award, indicating type of aid, i.e. gift aid (grant, scholarship), work, or loan.
 - c. Standard terminology and definitions.
 - d. Renewal requirements for each award.
 4. All required consumer information is displayed in a prominent location on the university's web site(s) and labeled as "Consumer Information" and printed materials labeled Consumer Information.
 5. Financial aid professionals will disclose to Western University any involvement, interest in, or potential conflict of interest with any entity with which the university has a business relationship.

► We, financial aid professionals, shall declare our commitment to the following Statement of Ethical Principles.

Financial Aid administrators shall:

Advocate for students

- Remain aware of issues affecting students and continually advocate for their interest at the institutional, state and federal levels.
- Support federal, state and institutional efforts to encourage students, as early as the elementary grades, to aspire to and plan for education beyond high school.

Manifest the highest level of integrity

- Commit to the highest level of ethical behavior and refrain from conflict of interest or the perception thereof.
- Deal with others honestly and fairly, abiding by our commitments and always acting in a manner that merits the trust and confidence others have placed in us.
- Protect the privacy of individual student financial records.
- Promote the free expression of ideas and opinions, and foster respect for diverse viewpoints within the profession.

Support student access and success

- Commit to removing financial barriers for those who want to pursue postsecondary learning and support each student admitted to our institution.
- Without charge, assist students in applying for financial aid funds.
- Provide services and apply principles that do not discriminate on the basis of race, gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, religion, disability, age, or economic status.
- Understand the need for financial education and commit to educate students and families on how to responsibly manage expenses and debt.

Comply with federal and state laws

- Adhere to all applicable laws and regulations governing federal, state, and institutional financial aid programs.
- Actively participate in ongoing professional development and continuing education programs to ensure ample understanding of statutes, regulations, and best practices governing the financial aid programs.
- Encourage colleagues to participate in the financial aid professional associations available to them at the state; regional or national level and offer assistance to other aid professionals as needed.

Strive for transparency and clarity

- Provide our students and parents with the information they need to make good decisions about attending and paying for college.
- Educate students and families through quality information that is consumer-tested when possible. This includes (but is not limited to) transparency and full disclosure on award notices.
- Ensure equity by applying all need-analysis formulas consistently across the institution's full population of student financial aid applicants.
- Inform students, and parents of any changes in financial aid programs that could affect their student aid eligibility.

Protect the privacy of financial aid applicants

- Ensure that student and parent private information provided to the financial aid office by financial aid applicants is protected in accordance with all state and federal statutes and regulations, including FERPA and the Higher Education Act, Section 483(a)(3)(E) (20 U.S.C. 1090).
- Protect the information of the FAFSA from inappropriate use by ensuring that this information is only used for the application, award, and administration of aid awarded under Title IV of Higher Education Act, state aid, or aid awarded by eligible institutions.

The Primary Goal of the financial aid professional is to help students achieve their educational goals through financial support and resources. The financial aid staff of Western University of Health Sciences is required to exemplify the highest level of ethical behavior and demonstrate the highest level of professionalism.